

ENGLISH PROFICIENCY

Vietnam's IT workforce

#2

Ranked among the top 2 countries in the world with the most English proficient IT workforces in 2014

Source: English Proficiency Index for Companies, 2014

#5

Ranked among the top 5 countries in Asia with the fastest improvement in English skills

Source: English Proficiency Index, 2014

#7

Ranked 7 in Asia with the Highest EF EPI Average

Source: English Proficiency Index, 2017

#6

Ranked among the top 10 countries of origin of international students

Source: Institute of International Education, Open Doors Report on International Educational Exchange, 2018/2019

2006

English became compulsory in nationwide secondary schools

Source: UNESCO, World Data on Education, 2011

~ 100%

94% of undergraduates & 92% of graduates in tertiary level are studying English as a subject

Source: Pivotal Research Project, Vietnam National University in Hanoi, 2008

CEFR

The 6-level testing system developed by the Common European Framework of Reference for Language is the official standard for assessing the quality of English learning nationwide

Source: Ministry of Education and Training, Project 2020

1800+

There are 1882 English teaching centers all around the country with 500,000+ learners/year

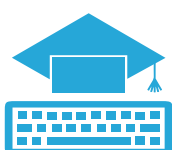

Source: UNESCO, Vietnam National Education for All, 2015

VNEP, Vietnam after 5 years joining WTO, 2013

TOEIC 450 ~ 550

English standard for IT graduates in most universities in Hanoi, Ho Chi Minh City, Da Nang

Source: Universities' websites

30+

More than 30 universities and colleges are teaching IT in English

Source: Universities' websites